The Leavenworth Case
Anna Katharine Green

Mr. Leavenworth is found shot at his desk. The evidence points to one of his nieces, but could a woman have committed such a heinous crime?

Anna Katharine Green (1846 - 1935) was one of the first female mystery writers to publish under her own name. The technical excellence of The Leavenworth Case caused several law schools to use it as a textbook in some of their classes, as an example of how misleading circumstantial evidence can be.
